"being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus." Philippians 1:6

God will finish what He started, this is it!

Learning from Philippians 1:6, God is reaffirming His calling to my life, what He has promised me when I was 7 years old it is happening now.

Until this point I have rejoiced in my suffering, patience, waiting and waiting because I knew that suffering produces perseverance, character, hope and my hope and faith in God did not disappointed me, because God has poured out His love into my heart by His Spirit. (Romans 5:3-5)

My dear Brother and Friend Steve McGowan always reminds me that the only reason I am going to Japan, it is because I love Jesus and Jesus loves me.

It is amazing how God allows us to trust Him until the very last moment of our journey; everything was ready for me to go to Japan, apart from the most important thing for me to enter Japan, the Visa. I didn't have it until one week before my departure, sure I got worried, didn't sleep much thinking and praying about it, but while praying Philippians 1:6 kept hitting my head, God will finish what He started, and I got the visa now.

I am leaving to Orientation Course in Singapore from Manchester Airport on 14th February, Sunday have to be at the airport for checking 6:30am.

This is it! Thank you very much for you prayers and support and it is just the beginning of an exciting adventure God is preparing not only for me but for those I am going to meet in Japan.

Behind a great battle, this is great victory. God bless you, your family and friends, thanks again!
